Detachment of Ninth Infantry Surrounded by 500 Insurgents.

100 BOLOMEN DEAD

Strong Delegation of Their Comrades Come to the Rescue Just in Time.

REBELS WERE ROUTED

Manila, Oct. 18.—The Ninth Infantry has avenged the massacre of nearly half of their comrades at Balangaga.

A detachment of forty-six men of the Ninth was surrounded by five hundred bolomen near Gandara, Samar, and for a time it looked as if the Balangaga slaughter was repeated.

Ten men had fallen dead and six others of the little company were wounded when a strong delegation of the Ninth came on the scene.

After a fierce fight the rebels were routed, leaving over one hundred dead on the field.

This engagement which took place today occurred about twenty miles north of Catbalogan, the capital of the island, where General Smith who commands the American troops at Samar, has headquarters. Smith left for the scene as soon as the news of the fight was received. He took with him two gunboats and a strong force of troops.

HENRY C. PAYNE HAS RETURNED HOME

He Will at Once Begin Soliciting Funds for the McKinley Monument at Canton, O.

Milwaukee, Oct. 18.—Henry C. Payne returned today from Washington. He had intended to remain in the east for two weeks longer, but cut his visit short in order to begin the work of raising Wisconsin's contribution to the McKinley monument fund. Mr. Payne is deeply interested in the work and will push it with energy.

He has not yet formulated his plans, but favors the appointment in each county of the state of one or two men to receive private subscriptions to the fund. In addition to this he will ask the newspapers, whatever their politics, to act as receivers for subscriptions. Banks will be asked to do the same. Mr. Payne said that he hoped to be able to appoint the county committees within the next two weeks. He will devote his time personally to the work.

RESIGNATION OF COACH PHIL KING; UNIVERSITY ATHLETE WILL QUIT

He Has Managed the Madison Football and Base Ball Teams for Six Years—Wants to Practice Law.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 18.—Phil King for six years coach of the football and base ball teams of the university of Wisconsin last night handed in his resignation to the board of directors of the Athletic association, the resignation to take effect at the close of the present football season. Though King has been considering such a step for some time his intentions were not known or even suspected outside of a small circle of very intimate friends and consequently his resignation came as a great surprise. To the directors of the athletic association he said that he thought it would be a good thing for athletics at Wisconsin to secure some new blood in the coaching department. He said he did not want to become stale here or lose his grip upon the students and thought it well to sever his connection with the institution while his reputation as a coach was still good. To friends he said that he intends

NEXT CONVENTION IN BOSTON IN 1904

Closing of the Triennial Episcopal Convention in the City of San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—The triennial convention of the Episcopal Church of America has adjourned sine die. The next convention is to be held in Boston in 1904.

It was agreed to make Honolulu and Cuba missionary districts, and to create the missionary district of Salina out of the diocese of Kansas. The house failed to concur, however, in the proposed setting apart of a portion of the diocese of Springfield, Ill., as a missionary district.

The election of Rev. Cameron Mann as missionary bishop of North Dakota was concurred in by the house of bishops.

Both houses agreed to the report of the committee on the proposed Huntington amendment to article 10 of the constitution. This action virtually relegates the matter to the next general convention. The triennial pastoral letter was read by Bishop Dudley of Kentucky.

The people are called upon to guard the sanctity of their homes, and the growing disregard of the observance of Sunday is deplored. Lastly, the letter urges the members to carry away from the great synod "the watchword of battle for the time to come—Missions, missions, missions."

PAN-AMERICAN IS NOT PROFITABLE

There Will Be a Total Deficit of About $1,500,000—Stock Worth Eight Cents on the Dollar.

New York, Oct. 18.—The Pan-American exposition has been anything but a paying investment so far, and those in a position to know intimate at the close of the season there will be a total deficit of from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000, which stockholders may be called upon to make good. This statement was made today by a prominent citizen of Buffalo, now in this city, who is familiar with the affairs and management of the exposition, and who appears to be well informed on the situation.

"Of course the first bondholders will not suffer because of any deficit, but the second bondholders will, and stock may be assessed to make up shortage that seems inevitable. When I left Buffalo recently Pan-American stock was being offered at 8 cents on the dollar."

Olga Rowson Cross-Examined. London, Oct. 18.—At the morning session of the trial of Theodore Jackson and Miss Dis De Bar, the latter vigorously cross-examined Olga Rowson. New York, Oct. 18.—At the age of 60 Edward S. Stokes is dying of old age. His life has been one of the most remarkable and strenuous of any passed in New York. In his sixty years he has lived more than a century.

Mr. Stokes is barely able to recognize his nearest relatives and friends, and now in pain and semi-consciousness, is ending the career of the man who killed Jim Flak, and whose sensational threats against Jay Gould and the other Erie Railroad managers were a world-wide topic of discussion thirty years ago. Stokes is best known to the present generation as the proprietor of the Hoffman house, his interest in which he sold out to Grahams Poly of Brooklyn, for $200,000.

FOR CHAIR OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE; WOMEN PLEDGE MORAL SUPPORT

The Downer College Scheme Endorsed by the State

Federation of Women's Clubs, After a Lively Debate at Madison This Morning.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The endorsement of a chair of domestic science at Downer college Milwaukee was endorsed by the state federation of women's clubs today after two hours of lively debate by a vote of 145 to 60.

The resolution as passed expresses sympathy with the effort and pledges a hearty moral support and recommends such financial aid as the circumstances of each club and club members will permit but does not think the federation ought to raise any given sum. The amount wanted is ten thousand dollars. The session closes this evening with a reception by L. D. Harvey. No election of officers occurs this year. The next place of meeting rests with the directors and has not been discussed.

This morning's session was taken up with district and committee reports, and a paper on "The State and the Wage Earning Woman" by Miss Ida M. Jackson, the woman factory inspector appointed in July, who under the direction of the state bureau of labor, is undertaking a comparative study of the wage earning women of Wisconsin.

This afternoon Prof. A. A. Brace of the state university will read a paper on "The True Basis of Reform."

AMOUNT OF STATE TAX LEVY; NEARLY ONE MILLION INCREASE

Apportionment to the Counties for 1902—Increase Is Due to the One-Mill School Tax Under the New Assessment Figures.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 18 The state tax levy for 1902 will be sent out from the secretary of state's office, within a few days will show that the total amount of state tax to be raised next year is $2,257,854, as against $1,345,570 in 1901, or an increase of almost $1,000,000 over 1901.

Because of the increase in the valuation of all property in the state made by the state board of assessment at its recent sitting the rate of taxation is only .00157201, as against .002135825 last year or more than half a mill less than for 1901. While the amount that will be raised for school purposes by the one mill tax is $806,284 greater than for the previous year, owing to the great increase in the assessed valuation, there is an increase in the state tax of $106,000 over and above the one mill levy.

That is the total amount of taxes to be raised for the year 1902, outside of the one mill tax, is $821,670, as against $715,570 for 1901. This increase is due not to any extra expense incurred in the actual conduct of the state government, but to some extra appropriations made for educational purposes, such as additions to the university fund income, the normal school fund income and to the aid the state is now giving the graded school.

This can be readily understood at a glance from the following table showing the various items which were put into the state fund for 1901 and 1902:

	1901.	1902.	Inc.
University fund inc.	$258,000	$280,000	$22,000
Normal sch. fund inc.	150,000	175,000	25,000
Free high schools	100,000	100,000	0
State and grad. sch.	60,000	60,000	0
Interest on state debt	157,570	157,570	0
Total	$715,570	$821,670	$106,000

The money for free high school, state aid for graded schools and the interest on the state debt are usually taken from the general fund, but when the general fund is not sufficient to carry them they are included in the annual levy made by the secretary of state.

The apportionment for Rock county is $78,271.64, as against $44,534.25 for 1901.

BLAME LAID TO THE DILATORY TURK

If the Sultan's Officials Had Acted Promptly, Miss Stone Would Be Safe Now.

Sofia, Oct. 18.—The driver of the conveyance in which Miss Stone was riding at the time she was kidnapped says that but for the dilatory Turkish authorities Miss Stone might easily have been rescued. He says that a few minutes after her abduction he met the Turkish patrol and urged them to pursue the brigands but they thought it was not their duty. They advised him to appeal to the civil vice governor. The latter took no action for two days remarking that it was the woman's own fault that she was kidnapped as she should have had a military escort on the trip.

EIGHT DEAD IN A TUNNEL DISASTER

Section of the Underground Tunnel Now Under Construction in New York, Caved In.

New York, Oct. 18.—The rapid transit tunnel at one hundred sixty Sixth street caved in this morning engulfing a number of workmen. Four bodies were recovered and it is believed that twice that number are still in the debris.

At three o'clock it was definitely known that only eight were killed. There were thirteen men in the gang but five of them made their escape, one of them being badly injured. The tunnel at the point where the cave in occurred was one hundred and five feet below the surface.

The bodies are still in the excavation covered by fully fifty tons of rock and loose dirt. Much of the rock will have to be blasted away before the remains can be recovered.

EIGHTEEN MONTHS IN STATE'S PRISON

Guy S. Griffey Pleads Guilty to the Information Filed Against Him for Forgery.

Guy S. Griffey, twenty-six years of age, the young man wanted for forgery, and who surrendered himself yesterday morning to the sheriff, petitioned the court this morning that he desired to plead to the information filed against him by the district attorney.

He was brought into the court at eleven o'clock and plead guilty to the charge of forgery. Judge Fifield sentenced him to a term of eighteen months in the state's prison at Waupun at hard labor. The crime for which he was sent to prison was the forging of his father's endorsement to a promissory note for $150.

The note was dated June 27, 1901 and was discounted at the First National bank of this city. He also discounted a note at the Rock County bank but stated to the court that he thought it would be taken care of.

At the time the forgeries were committed he resided on the Walworth farm in the town of Fulton. He was in need of some money and took this means of securing it. He thought he would be able to pay the notes before they became due, and thus escape discovery. His plans miscarried and he was forced to skip out to escape arrest. He told the judge he was twenty-six years of age and had been married for five years. In imposing sentence Judge Fifield took into consideration the facts that he had given himself up voluntarily and had not put the state to the expense of a trial and that this was his first offense.

He will be taken to Waupun tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Clarissa Loudon of Fond du Lac is the guest of local friends and relatives.

PRIEST BARS LOW NECKED GOWNS; SAYS SUCH ATTIRE IS NOT DECENT

Father Decker of Milwaukee, Declines Communion to a Bride Because Her Dress Was Cut Low.

Milwaukee, Oct. 18.—Father Anton I. Decker of St. Anthony's church declined to administer communion to a bride at her wedding ceremony a few days ago because she wore a decolette wedding gown. The house of worship was filled with the friends and relatives of the happy couple. The wedding ceremony had been performed and the mass had been sung, but when the time came for administering the holy communion to the bride, the priest went on through the mass without stopping for that part of the ceremony.

Later, upon being asked why he neglected that most important part of the ceremony, Father Decker told the bride he would not give communion to anyone wearing a dress like that which she wore. The bride blushed deeply and broke into tears and her husband was annoyed and nonplussed.

At last, after further parleying with the priest one of the maids of honor ran from the sanctuary and soon appeared, bringing a shawl, which was spread over the neck and shoulders of the newly-made wife, and the priest then consented to administer the cherished communion.

Father Decker when seen at the parish house at 673 Fourth avenue last evening, was loath to speak of the incident at first and declined to give out the name of the young woman.

FOUR SLAIN IN A BRISK BATTLE

Boers Are Now Leading British Army a Merry Chase.

SHIFT CAMP NIGHTS

The English Army Finds Freshly Plowed Land in Orange River Valley.

BOERS REACH THE SEA

Cape Town, Oct. 18.—In a brisk fight at Twenty-four Streams, near Piquetberg, Captain Billew and four other British were killed and several others wounded. The British having surprised several camps the Boers are now in the habit of shifting camp by night. Late in the British columns, after long night marches, have arrived at their objectives only to find the Boers gone. British columns penetrating Orange River Colony miles from the railways find fields of maize or freshly plowed lands, the Boers making off at their approach and returning when the columns pass on. The herds on the high veldt still seem to be numerous. The Boers are living on cattle and mealies stored in out of the way places. The invaders have reached the sea, a commando of 500 men having penetrated through the rich Great Berg valley to Hopfield and Saldanha bay, northwest of Cape Town. The republicans have secured a number of recruits and considerable quantities of supplies. General French is directing the operations against them.

Attack on a British Convoy.

Bloemfontein, Oct. 18.—On Saturday a steam convoy left here for Dewetsdorp with 120 tons of supplies for the Bogle-Smith column, escorted by 120 of the Scots guards, commanded by Major MacGregor. When it reached Letuw kop it was attacked by 200 Boers, who held a position on a hill. The fighting lasted all day Sunday until dusk. The Boers decamped during the night, leaving twenty of their dead behind them. The British casualties were eleven slightly wounded. The convoy delivered the supplies at Dewetsdorp and returned without further trouble.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 17.—John S. Pillsbury, former governor of Minnesota and famous as a maker of flour, died at two thirty o'clock this morning of Bright's disease. He was ill some time and his death was not unexpected.

Leaf Tobacco Notes.

Tobacco dealers say that in many ways the failure of the 1901 crop is a great benefit to them, and it keeps the price of tobacco within reasonable bounds. The present rate of increase in the prices, paid to the producer by the dealer if kept up, would soon raise the price to such a notch that the local dealers cannot afford to handle it.

A poor crop for a year or so makes the farmers realize that it is better to sell their tobacco for a fair price than it is to hold it for high prices. Every time during the last twenty years that a poor crop has been raised, the farmers have asked a big price for what they had, and have sold a year or two later at a big reduction on their first offer.

Conservative buyers are not investing in this year's crop as yet. The crop went through too much dry weather during the time it was being raised to be first class, but the farmers are asking first-class prices for it.

In many cases crops were harvested before they were ripe for fear of frost. While the tobacco was hanging in the shed a dry spell came on, and the leaf instead of curling out as it should came out green and dry like hay, without any life or substance to it. Had there been a damp spell after this tobacco would have cured out black and still have been of some account.

A great many eastern firms who have buyers in the west and buy on joint account, have been telling their agents not to feel that they were forced to buy this crop. They would much rather pay an agent a salary than have him buy goods that they are bound to lose money on.

Outside of what buying that has been done in Vernon county and some few places that have been bargained for by the American Tobacco company around this section of the country, very little of the 1901 crop has been touched. The outlook for the crop is certainly very dark and unless it comes out beyond all expectation a large price will not be obtained for it.

It is true with the crop as with all other poor crops, that there will be some first-class tobacco and a fair price will be paid for it. One farmer, that raised a ten acre piece of tobacco stated that he considered he had a better crop than the average when he shedded it. Since it has begun to cure out, he has discovered that it is near what good tobacco of other years has been. This is the general opinion throughout the country.

As there is very little old tobacco left in this section that is not owned by eastern firms, there is not much going on around the warehouses outside of sampling. No big sales are reported during the present week in any direction.

The New York market has slackened considerably. Considering not only the steady but constantly improving activity of the cigar industry the market should be swept clean of its stock before the new year comes around. That this is not done is explained by the street-wag that the big manufacturer is working from hand to mouth with the expectation of being bought out any day, so he does not want to accumulate any stock for transfer. But such an expectation will not be realized and the manufacturer, the longer he waits to supply himself with a stock commensurate with his prospective needs will find a more difficult market to buy in, and he will have to meet successive advances on a diminishing and hardly sufficient stock. Wrappers are still being searched for with eagerness but the supply has almost given out. The Wisconsin is still not in the market. The sales for the week of all types aggregate about 1,200 boxes.

Sumatra continues in steady demand. Sales are being made every day of lots of from five to twenty-five bales. About 300 bales were taken during the week.—U. S. Tobacco Journal.

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 16.—The surface of the tobacco market at the present moment is calm and serene, without anything in sight to disturb its placidity.

Some few sales of the new crop have been made to a local buyer, the prices reported being as high as 9 cents for seed leaf and 12 cents for Havana seed. Packers have, however, made no demonstration in this direction although quite a number have been visiting farmers, examining their goods and trying to find out what they can be bought for; all of which leads to the inference that packers may begin operations at any time.

The market for old goods was not brisk during the past week. There were a good many inquiries, however, many of which could not be met. Where the goods on hand suited buyers there was some trading and about 1,200 cases changed hands.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 16.—Business among the leaf jobbers, although fair, is not very satisfactory to the most of them, as expectations were that there would be a brisk demand for goods soon. Inasmuch as prices on tobacco are very high at present, a number of dealers are of the opinion that he average manufacturer will buy only as occasion demands, holding off the buying of advance stock until prices shall be more moderate. The Havana market is dull here. Collections among the most of the jobbers are fair.

Manufacturers are still busy, most of them having all hands at work, and stock is not accumulating in their warehouses, for the demand still keeps up to the output. Havana goods are especially moving fast.

Wisconsin Tobacco Market. The same conditions prevail regarding the movement of the new crop as for some weeks past. Less effort toward buying in Vernon county section is reported, while matters are quiet all along the line. There has been some hustling after cured samples since the casing weather this week but only a small portion of the crop is sufficiently cured in the lower sections to give a very intelligent idea of what the crop is like. While the weather is favorable to curing, there is a general complaint that the tobacco is unusually slow in curing down this season.

There is a growing inquiry after old goods on all sides and several out-of-town dealers have been in the markets. Generally speaking but little of the 1900 crop has yet been placed on the market and sampling is not yet completed among the local packers.

The shipments out of storage reach 747ca. 18 car loads, from this market to all points for the week past. Since last report 645 ca of cigar leaf were exported from New York. The figures relating to the acreage in Rock county show a total of 8,240 acres, what the intended crop would be. These are a decline of 130 acres from the returns of 1900 and would indicate that the growers of this county are not disposed to enlarge their fields even under favorable circumstances. The prolonged drouth, however, prevented even the planting of a large proportion of the fields set aside for tobacco. We believe it a safe estimate to say that not over one-half the intended crop was harvested in this county, and possibly 4,000 acres would come nearer the correct figures.—Edgerton Reporter.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Otis Skinner in a grand revival of George H. Baker's sublime tragedy of "Francesca Da Rimini" will play at the Myers Grand Monday evening, Oct. 21. Mr. Skinner will come direct from his Chicago triumph with company, scenery, costumes, in fact, the entire production as presented in that city. No actor has found favor more rapidly with our critical theatergoers than this foremost of American actors. Notwithstanding the high class of entertainment heretofore presented by Mr. Skinner, it is safe to state that nothing he has been seen in here approaches in general excellence his production of "Francesca Da Rimini."

It was announced yesterday by Manager Myers of the Myers Grand that on the night of Thursday, Oct. 21 he would present the grand and sterling tragedian, Mrs. Robert B. Mantell, under the management of M. W. Hanley, in an elaborate production of "Hamlet." This organization which is reputed to be the strongest in tragic roles in this country, has received nothing but the highest praise for this production and its appearance here will be the theatrical event of the season.

FOUNTAIN PENS WERE RECOVERED

Eighty-five fountain pens stolen from Skelly's book store in this city on Friday night last by Ray Marsden of the value of $200 were recovered by Chief Hogan in Chicago yesterday from a State street pawn broker.

Marsden told the chief where he had planted the goods and said he had not pawned them. The pawnbroker at first denied that Marsden had left the stuff there but when the chief convinced him he knew what he was about he brought out a shoe box with part of the pens in it. Hogan told him that he would have to come again and finally succeeded in getting eighty-five pens. Marsden told Hogan he left eighty-nine pens, but the pawnbroker declared this was the whole bunch and that they had been left as security for an overcoat worth $6.

Marsden told the pawnbroker that he would be back last Wednesday night and make a deal with him for the rest of the stuff. Fortunately for Mr. Skelly the young man was caught before he had a chance to get back to Chicago.

Protect Labor. Whatever changes may be made in the tariff there is one thing that republican senators and congressmen will not fail to keep fully in view if they are in close touch with the people, and that is the fundamental principle of protection to American workmen. The prime object of a protective tariff is not the welfare of the capitalists but of the workmen, and because the former flourish under such a tariff is no reason why injury should be inflicted upon the latter merely to reduce the profits of the former. Whatever reciprocity can be applied without injuring the American workmen it should be, but along no other lines. —Beloit Free Press.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion in the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is not cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Grand Old Men

Some men seem to defy old age. They walk erect. Their eyes are bright. Their laughter hearty. They are men of yesterday. They are also men who have kept themselves in good physical condition in the past. As we grow older, waste matter accumulates in the system. The body cannot throw it off without assistance. So, little by little the machinery of the body is clogged, vitality is lowered, and enjoyment of life ceases. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, cannot make old men young, but it does make them strong and healthy, by removing the waste accumulations, by increasing the blood supply, by strengthening the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and thus increasing the assimilative and nutritive powers. "Golden Medical Discovery" makes grand old men. I suffered for six years with constipation and indigestion, during which time I employed several physicians, but they could not reach my case," writes Mr. G. Popplewell, of Eureka Springs, Cal., "I felt that there was no help for me, could not retain food on my stomach; had vertigo and would fall helpless to the floor. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and the Pellets, and now in good health for one of my age—60 years. I owe it all to Dr. Pierce's medicine." Dr. Pierce's Pellets greatly benefit old men by keeping the bowels in activity.

ROOM AT THE TOP.

Secretary Gage said the other day that there was a scarcity of men to fill places of responsibility in large abiding institutions, and that places could be found for twenty men at $25,000 salaries if the men were in sight.

Mr. Gage was not talking for effect, but he was stating a fact that is too frequently overlooked. The old saying "There's plenty of room at the top," is so shop worn, that it has lost significance, and yet there has never been a time when top round men have been in such active demand as at the present time.

This demand is not confined to the banking business; but it covers every profession, and every class of occupation, where brain contributes to skill.

The country abounds with attorneys of ordinary ability, whose incomes vary from a scant living to moderate wealth, but there are comparatively few lawyers who gain prominence up near the top. It requires hard, persistent, intelligent work to climb, and the landings near the bottom are always crowded with young men who have grown weary early in the race.

There is no lack of doctors who speculate with the grave problem of disease as they would with the outcome of a ball game; but the men who master anatomy, and the diagnosis of the thousand ills that afflict humanity, are not always in evidence. The young doctor is too often satisfied with a diploma and gilt sign, and too indifferent to enter the great field of research that stretches out before him, and he is a novice at forty, when he ought to be a giant.

The ministry, that most sacred of all callings, is crowded with the same meagre equipment, and wonder is often expressed why people are so indifferent concerning the church, forgetting that the progress of the age demands more than a "call to preach." It demands the broadest intelligence, supplemented by a thoroughly equipped mind, and stimulated by a warm and loving heart. It demands hard brain work that is sometimes distasteful even to men of holy calling.

Every department of the business and industrial work, has its army of common workers, while the advance guard, composed of men who possessed the nerve and determination to step out to the front and demand recognition is never crowded.

These conditions in every department of toil exist not for lack of opportunity, but for lack of self-acquired ability, and that is the only kind of ability that ever forges to the front.

The young man who wins in the battle of life, whether aided in laying the foundation by every encouragement that money can supply, or whether obliged to dig out every stone for himself, is the young man who realizes that the foundation is but the stepping stone, and that he, and he alone, is responsible for the building.

Knowledge is something to be acquired, down to the verge of time. The man who ceases in his efforts to gain it, because he imagines that he knows it all, not only ceases to grow, but competitors pass him in the race, and he soon joins the vanguard, and becomes a trailer in the commissary department.

There is only one thing more necessary to success than knowledge, and that is the ability and common sense to apply it. It is possible to have a head full of knowledge and a pocket full of holes. Many people well stocked with knowledge make a failure of effort, because they never turn themselves loose, and apply what they know in practical ways.

You can be a clerk at ten dollars a week for forty years, when you might have been a merchant, if nerve and determination prompted the ambition to apply knowledge.

Mr. Gage is right when he deplores the lack of men to assume great responsibilities. The field is world wide and it should be an incentive to every young man to struggle up towards the top. There's plenty of room, and you are needed.

SAYS CENTRAL BANK IS NEEDED

"A banking system for a great nation like the United States requires a central bank, with a head in the chief commercial city, with branches in each of the commercial centers, which shall constitute the head and backbone of the system. This central bank should be the bank of the banks, and the bank of the government. The subtreasuries should be abolished. This central bank should hold the gold reserve of all the banks and of the nation. The reserve of the other banks should consist of credits on the ledger of the central bank. Sub-systems should be formed, consisting of heads in important centers, with branches scattered over the country, thus carrying the facilities of great, strong, solvent banks to every hamlet and cross-road in the country.

"The only legislation required is the repeal of the subtreasury laws, and of the provisions of the present national bank law which in any manner restrict the business of swapping credits and which prevent banks from conducting the banking function in more than one locality. It would not be necessary, or indeed, desirable, to grant the central bank a special charter, with or without special privileges. The banking business is a part of commerce, and commerce is an individual, not a governmental, function. The commercial bank is a co-worker with the merchant, and in the conduct of its legitimate business of swapping credits should be as free as the merchant. Grant the banking business this freedom and the system, including the central bank, will form itself along the lines of economic laws to which alone commerce by right owes allegiance.

"Such a system, history conclusively proves, has the capacity to continue exercising the banking functions, and thereby sustaining normal values, during the fiercest commercial crises. A system having such a capacity, in connection with the genius for trade possessed by the people of the United States and the wealth of its natural resources, may make New York, instead of London, the chief exchange city of the world, and the United States, instead of England, the creditor nation of the world—without it, never."—A. B. Stickney.

Mr. Stickney is president of the Chicago and Great Western railroad, and was for many years engaged in the banking business. The quotation is from an address delivered in Milwaukee before the American Bankers' association. Lyman P. Gage, secretary of the treasury, was so impressed with the arguments advanced, that he said, the state of Minnesota would be honored by sending Mr. Stickney to the United States senate, where his influence would be felt in the world of finance for the nation's good.

Mr. Stickney is a firm believer in banking methods employed by England and Scotland, and backs his belief by figures and history which indicate that the United States is in its infancy in banking. He asserts that money panics are impossible, and bank failures unknown, under the central banking system, and says that during the last panic of 1893, when American banks were failing by the score, and loans were out of the question, that the little province of Canada furnished money cheerfully and in abundance, to handle the wheat crop of Minnesota and Dakota.

He agrees that the central banking system would unlock our idle surplus and so distribute the circulating medium that the business of the country would be stimulated, confidence extended and the nation would soon occupy the position to which it is entitled by wealth and resources, the money center of the world.

The Bankers' association is doing a good work, and the Milwaukee meeting may result in several reforms, among them the retirement of greenback notes, which have ceased to be a necessity, and have become a menace to our monetary system. Secretary Gage favors reform legislation, and the next congress will doubtless take the matter up.

The perplexing question of the hired girl found a solution at Madison this week. When the club women get their hasheries established, a dumb waiter will do all the business. Reformation is in the air, and the car of progress is no respecter of persons. The hired girl must go, and take some young fellow with her, or set up a home of her own.

If you hear trumpets and see men on the streets with pitchers, tomorrow, don't be alarmed. The Gideons are abroad in the land, and they are on a peaceful mission. They will besiege the citadel on Sunday from many pulpits that have accorded them a welcome.

The club women of Wisconsin have had their inning at Madison this week while the other side of the house have kept the home, darned the stockings and other things generally. The colored race was not in evidence, and the convention was harmonious and gossipy.

The heavy weights of finance have quenched their thirst with Milwaukee's favorite beverage for the past few days, and discovered how it is possible to live long and die happy, by taking time for the forelock and holding him still long enough to "eat, drink and be merry." Milwaukee always takes time to live.

Pat Crowe says he has $500 left, and is willing to squander it on a bull bond if necessary. If Pat had $25,000 he has been a little reckless with his expenditures. He should claim the reward for self-delivery, and have a guardian appointed to look after his wealth.

Righteous indignation is a good thing to cultivate, but don't swear. Profanity never built a sewer, nor disturbed an alderman.

"By the sweat of thy brow," is an old command, but it appears to be significant and vigorous in spite of infirmity.

Life is short, but it is long enough to satisfy most people that it is no holiday excursion.

PRESS COMMENT.

Racine Journal:—Senator Frye is mistaken. The country is not pining for ship subsidy measures, especially of the pattern proposed.

Richland Center Observer: The Massachusetts democrats have certainly fixed things so Mr. Bryan will not want to make speeches in that state.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: The only office which the Hon. Henry C. Payne has ever asked for, is the office of sacrificial service to his party.

Marquette Eagle:—The democrats are trying to make out that reciprocity means free trade. The gentlemen are not above twisting things to suit their purpose, apparently.

Milwaukee Journal: Mr. Andrew Carnegie may not appreciate it, but the fact remains that there is not much use fighting Tammany by telegraph while that organization controls the local saloons.

Green Bay Gazette: The terms demanded by Pat Crowe as preliminary to his surrender have been complied with and now it is up to Pat to come in as per agreement. He might bring along what is left of the ransom money, for it may come handy during the trial which awaits the kidnaper.

Whitewater Gazette: It cannot fail to impress an outsider that a man who occupies Rev. A. J. Benjamin's position in the Methodist conference and who is himself a newspaper man, might see that less of the conference report was taken up with his disputes with his brethren.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Kentucky justice has assumed a new phase. In opening the second trial of one of the alleged murderers of Governor Goebel that court had every person entering the room searched for firearms—but none were found. Imagine a Kentuckian going to court or to church without his gun.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: The Washington correspondent of the St. Paul Dispatch has exclusive information that the Hon. Henry C. Payne is a broken-hearted office seeker. It would be interesting to know just how many offices Mr. Payne has declined during his long and eminent service for the republican party in the state and in the union.

Evening Telegram: It is said the late Lorenzo Snow, head of the Mormon church, never touched tobacco or liquor in any form. It is reasonable to infer, therefore, that his death was due to his extensive domestic responsibilities, which had to do with seven wives and forty-nine children, complicated with his eighty-seven years.

Burlington Free Press: The proposition made by Henry C. Payne of Milwaukee that congress take measures at its coming session to wipe out all war taxes is a good one and should be acted upon. As long as the revenues derived from these levies are not needed, it is no longer necessary, and therefore, no longer right, that the taxes should be levied, resulting in a growing surplus in the treasury, which should be avoided.

Waupaca Post: The Stevens bill is dead, and rightfully so, and with it lies the Hagameister substitute, and that child of Senator Hutton's brain, who died a "bornin'." A law changing the present caucus and convention system for one which will more truly represent the people, and under the provisions of which the candidates of the political parties in what is needed, and such a law would receive the support of three-fourths of the voters of the state, regardless of party affiliations.

Appleton Post: Johann Most, the dirtiest and most cowardly anarchist of the lot, was on Monday convicted and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the New York penitentiary for publishing in his newspaper the day after the shooting of the late President McKinley an article approving of the act of the assassin. If Most had the courage of his pretensions, he would, as the result of his imprisonment, be more of an anarchist than ever, because the first treatment he was subjected to was a bath and a hair cut.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE STREET.

When a man merely thinks he thinks what he accomplishes is generally an imitation.

If people with bad tempers feel as uncomfortable as they make their associates, that fact is some comfort.

When it is possible never let an enemy know that he annoys you.

The man who makes fun of opposition has it half defeated.

The politician who has a wise wife generally succeeds in his undertakings.

'Tis the part of wisdom not to try and get a joke on a woman—Milwaukee Journal.

RAY MARSDEN SENT TO WAUPUN GETS FIVE YEARS IN STATE PRISON

Pleads Guilty to the Charge of Entering W. J. Skelly's
On Night of Oct. 11, and Stealing Certain Goods Worth Over a Hundred Dollars.

Ray Marsden will spend the greater part of the next five years of his life in the state prison at Waupun. He was brought before Judge Field of the Municipal court this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock upon a warrant sworn out by W. J. Skelly, charging him with entering his store at 57 West Milwaukee street on the night of Oct. 11 and taking therefrom goods to the amount of over one hundred dollars.

Marsden waived examination and his trial was set for October 23rd at 10 o'clock, his bond being fixed at $1,000. The prisoner at once presented a petition to the court asking for an immediate trial which was granted. District Attorney Jackson filed an information against Marsden charging him with the offense mentioned in the warrant to which he pleaded guilty.

Judge Field before imposing sentence gave the prisoner a sound lecture on the error of his ways, and upon the uselessness of sending him to Waushara, or Green Bay, where he would run away as soon as he had the least show. It was on this account that the district attorney filed this last information so that he might be sent to a place where he would be looked after. He then sentenced him to a term of five years in the state prison at Waupun, the first two days to be spent in solitary confinement.

It is seldom that a boy as young as Marsden is as old in the ways of wrong doing and unless some strict measures were taken at once to reform him he would spend the greater portion of his days in state prison. He has already been mixed up in a dozen offenses and was pardoned out of the state prison in Tennessee only about a year ago. The sentence of the court had no visible effect on the boy and he appeared to be unconcerned as to his future.

REV. ROBERT C. DENISON HAS CALL CHURCH IN CHICAGO WANTS HIM

An Urgent Demand For the Janesville Preacher From a Large and Wealthy Congregation—He Has Not Decided What to Do.

Within the past week Rev. Robert C. Denison has had an opportunity to sever his connection with the Congregational church of this city and accept the pastorate of one of the leading churches of Chicago. While a definite call has not been extended, the committee of the church has asked Rev. Denison if he would accept the position of the church offered it to him. The extension of the official and definite call rests entirely on Mr. Denison's answer to the unofficial proposition of the committee. The church pays a salary of $6,000 per year.

When seen this afternoon regarding the matter Rev. Denison absolutely declined to say what church was trying to secure his services beyond the fact that it was one of the oldest largest and most conservative churches in Chicago. He did not desire to embarrass the church in any way by giving its name. Rev. Denison has known for some time that the church committee was investigating him and his work, with a view to calling him, the news coming to him indirectly from friends who had been questioned.

On Wednesday in response to a request of the committee he went to Chicago and met a representative member of the committee. This gentleman told Mr. Denison that the committee felt very strongly that he was the right man for their church and urged him to give a favorable answer. He assured Mr. Denison that the opportunities of coming to

CONTRACTING FIRM OF BLAKE BROS.

Doing Excellent Work Paving With Brick Along Court Street—Build Sewer Filtering Plants.

Blake Bros., the Madison contractors, who have the work of paving Court street from the bridge to Main street with brick will have their contract with the city completed by the first of next week. The grade of brick being used is the best for paving purposes and is manufactured at Galesburg, Ill. It is repressed brick and is being placed in position by competent workmen brought here for that purpose. The firm of Blake Bros. is composed of John T. and E. C. Blake with headquarters in Madison and Dubuque. E. C. Blake is an expert civil engineer and now holds the responsible position of city engineer at Dubuque. Blake Bros. special line of work is in constructing sewerage plants. At Madison they placed the large city septic tank and filter beds which filters the city sewerage before it passes to the lakes. This plan of filtering has proved beyond doubt a great success and is highly recommended by the state board of health.

At Fond du Lac Blake Bros. are now constructing a similar plant that will cost when completed $14,000. The city of Fond du Lac has only adopted this method of sewerage filtering after giving the matter much time and consideration.

Blake Bros. come to Janesville highly recommended. That the firm is composed of hustlers is plain to be seen by the lively manner in which the work of paving Court street is progressing.

CORNER STONE OF NEW CITY HALL

Arrangements for the Dedication Exercises Tomorrow Now Complete—Masons in Charge.

The preliminary arrangements for the laying of the corner stone at the city hall tomorrow afternoon are now about completed. The ceremonies connected with the placing of the stone in position will be very simple. There will be remarks by Mayor Richardson and remarks by the presiding officers of the Grand Lodge F. and A. M. and the attendant prescribed ritual of the order.

The box will contain copies of the daily papers and other papers published in the city. A copy of the proceedings of the council directing the erection of the building, a list of the city officers and a sketch of the early settlers of the state now residents of the city.

The procession will form at 1:30 o'clock in front of the Court House park on Main street and will march to the place where the stone is to be laid and the ceremonies take place. Oscar F. Nowlan will act as marshal of the day and Col. Theodore W. Goldin will be grand marshal, representing the Grand Lodge.

The lettering on the stone is now complete and everything is in readiness for placing it in position. Contractor Rawson & Son will have things cleaned up as much as possible around the corner so that all may have a chance to see the ceremonies.

FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

October 12th, 1901, will be a day long to be remembered in the hearts of all who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lester of Emerald Grove to celebrate with them their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Lester are natives of England, their birthplace being Holbeck, Lincolnshire, Eng. Mr. Lester came to this country in 1867, settling in Jefferson county, Wis. Mrs. Lester followed with the children in 1870, where they have continued to make their home until three years ago when they left the farm and moved to Emerald Grove where they continue to reside. During their fifty years of wedded life their path has been strewn with their share of trials and trouble.

Six children have been born to them, one dying in infancy, another, the oldest son, being a victim of a threshing engine explosion, in Jefferson county in 1886; he with his two sons being killed. Five children, John and William Lester, and Mrs. Burr Armstrong, of Oakland, Wis.,

Mr. Robert Johnson of Milwaukee and Mr. Charles Fitch of Emerald Grove were present, also eleven grandchildren who added greatly to the merriment of the occasion.

At 2:30 fifty persons, large and small, sat down to a very sumptuous dinner provided by the children and grandchildren and others present. During the dinner hour twenty-five dollars in gold was presented to them by the friends, also numerous other useful things were given, including a nice water set.

After dinner the bride of fifty years was happily surprised when the husband slipped on her finger a new gold wedding ring. The party then joined in singing McKinley's hymn, and after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the friends that lived near by, bade the aged couple adieu and Godspeed. In the evening parties from Janesville came and congratulated them. There were friends present from Chicago, Milwaukee, Jefferson, Shepley and Cambridge.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

British Labor in Rome.
London, Oct. 18.—The sharp competition between United States manufacturers and the British in home markets already has led to rioting and still more serious trouble is predicted unless something is done to stay the "American invasion." Unemployed workmen at Northampton, principally shoemakers, were the rioters. To the number of more than 1,000 they assembled to discuss their conditions. Turbulent scenes followed. The men, incited by Socialists, stormed the workhouse, demanding relief from the distress caused by the paralysis of trade, which they declared was due to American competition.

Americans Take Two Races.
London, Oct. 18.—The Americans took the last two races at the Newmarket second October meeting. Kearsarge (Maher) won the Prendergast stakes, distance five furlongs and 140 yards. Mountain Daisy ("Clem" Jenkins) won the Bretby stakes, six furlongs.

To Hit British Sea Commerce.
New York, Oct. 18.—The Brussels correspondent of the Times says a Dutch committee has just been formed for the purpose of bringing pressure to bear on Great Britain by paralyzing her shipping trade, and in this way inducing her to restore independence to the Boers. It is intended to issue notices to the dock laborers of Belgium, France and Holland, calling upon them to refuse to work for British ships. The merchants are also to be asked not to ship freight by British vessels.

Panama Seizes Building.
Colon, Colombia, Oct. 18.—The Gazette de Panama, an official organ of the Colombian government, has published a legal notice of the Panama courts announcing the seizure of the Panama Canal Company's large three-story stone building in Cathedral Square, Panama, to enforce payment by the company of $30,000 due to Henry Schuler, a United States citizen.

Want Monopoly of Oil.
Paris, Oct. 18.—The members of the budget committee believe that a state monopoly of petroleum refining would be preferable to the protective duty, which falls on the consumer and favors the refiners. M. Caillaux, finance minister, protests that the system could not be put in operation by the new year.

Starts for the South Pole.
Gothenburg, Oct. 18.—Prof. Otto Nordenskjöld's south pole vessel Antarctic has sailed. All the members of the expedition were on board with the exception of Lieut. Duse, who will join the vessel at Falmouth. The Antarctic was warmly cheered by thousands of people who assembled to bid her farewell.

Paper Attacks King Edward.
London, Oct. 18.—The Church Times, organ of the ritualists, contains a virulent attack on King Edward for attending the services at the Crathie Presbyterian parish church. The King, declares this newspaper, is a "catholic prince," and as such ought not to be found worshipping in the capital of the Presbyterians and conforming to a "different religion" in Scotland. Queen Victoria, continues the Church Times, attended the Crathie church, because of her "Jacobite sympathies," and the king "ought to know better than to follow her example."

Puts the Ban on Prize Fights.
Columbus, O., Oct. 18.—Attorney-General Sheets has brought quo warranto proceedings in the circuit court of this county to take from the Manhattan Athletic Club of Columbus its charter. The petition recites that the real purpose of the club is to promote prize-fighting, and that it was organized to evade the laws of the state against such fights. The attorney-general's action is in line with the course which the governor has been following in such matters. The fight was scheduled for Thursday night.

Appointments by Roosevelt.

COMMISSION FOR CAPT. E. G. HARLOW

Janesville Man is Appointed as Alternate Member of the Vicksburg Battlefield Commission.

Capt. E. G. Harlow, of this city, has been honored by Gov. Robert M. LaFollette with an appointment as alternate member of the Vicksburg Battlefield Commission. Capt. Harlow's commission was received yesterday and is a very handsome document of which he is justly proud.

The commission of which he has been made a member is a new one and was authorized by a law passed by the state legislature last spring. The duty of the commission is to co-operate with the national park commission in ascertaining and exactly determining the positions of each Wisconsin organization of troops in the siege of Vicksburg and also to recommend to the governor of the state such subsequent legislation as will, in the opinion of the commission, permanently and suitably mark the positions thus ascertained and worthily commemorate the valor and services of Wisconsin soldiers in the campaign and siege of Vicksburg. A fund of one thousand dollars has been appropriated out of the state treasury to be used by the commission to pay the necessary traveling expenses of the members in the discharge of their duties and the commission is to make a full report of the execution of its trust on or before Jan. 15, 1902.

The commission consists of three or more members, appointed by the governor and representing the various infantry and cavalry regiments and batteries of light artillery which participated in the campaign and siege of Vicksburg. Each member of the commission must have served with honor in the campaign and siege of Vicksburg and with the organization of troops which he is appointed to represent and must serve on the commission without pay save as to the necessary traveling expenses.

No man in Wisconsin is more eligible to appointment on the commission than Capt. Harlow as he was present at his post of duty every day of the siege which lasted for forty nine days and marched into the city with the victorious Union troops when the city surrendered on July 4. Capt. Harlow served with the Twelfth Wisconsin Battery of Light Artillery.
